

Monterey Terrorism Research and Education Program
Monterey Institute of International Studies
460 Pierce Street, Monterey, CA 93940

The Monterey Institute of International Studies in collaboration with The Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry, The American College of Medical Toxicology, and the Monterey County Office of Emergency Services, Present:

Chemical Agents of Opportunity for Terrorism

May 5 & 6 at the Irvine Auditorium at 499 Pierce St. Monterey, CA 93940. This course will provide a functional overview to emergency management officials, emergency responders, and other government employees on issues regarding terrorist use of toxic industrial chemicals and materials against the American public.

Program Overview

- Toxic Warfare: Looking Beyond Conventional Weapons
- Toxic Gases in Your Community
- The Psychological Impact of Terrorism
- An Overview of attacks on Chemical Facilities
- Threat Assessment of Chemical Agent Attacks
- An Overview of the SEMS program
- Concluding with a functional scenario based exercise designed to utilize the information obtained in the workshop and apply it to situations likely to be experienced in the field.
- And More ...

Enrollment open to all emergency services, law enforcement, and public health personnel
For More Information Contact: Jason Dunton
Phone: 831-647-7174
Email: Jason.Dunton@miis.edu

