Public Transportation Information:

There is public transportation access from Logan International Airport to the ICC via the commuter rail and then a bus/taxi ride to downtown Lowell.

From the airport terminal, take the free MASSPORT shuttle bus to Airport Station (buses may be labeled "Airport Subway Station"). At Airport Station, purchase a one-way fare ($2 USD). Take the Blue Line—Bowdoin (inbound subway train) three stops to State Street Station (this train takes about 5 minutes). At State Street Station, take the Orange Line—Oak Grove (outbound subway train) two stops to North Station (this train takes about 2 minutes). At North Station, follow the signs to the Commuter Rail Station. At the Commuter Rail Station, take the Lowell Line to Lowell (this train takes about 45 minutes). Tickets to Lowell ($9-12 USD) may be less expensive if purchased at the ticket window than if they are purchased on the train itself. http://www.mbta.com/riding_the_t/logan/

You can then take a taxi to the ICC. Several taxi companies serve the Lowell area. http://www.yelp.com/search?cflt=taxis&find_loc=Lowell%2C+MA%2C+USA. Fare from the Lowell Train Station to the Conference Center is around $6-8 USD.

A bus (downtown shuttle) can also be taken downtown, but does not go directly to the ICC. Information regarding the route can be found here <http://lrta.com/schedules/route-18-downtown-shuttle/>
